

Government Polytechnic, Jalgaon Electronics and Telecommunication department Nodal Centre of IIRS, ISRO

Indian institute of Remote Sensing, ISRO, Dehradun has selected Department of Electronics and Telecommunication of Government Polytechnic Jalgaon as remote nodal Centre for conducting Various online/offline courses in Nashik Region. Institute is working as nodal centre since August 2020. Maximum 10000 registrations seats are available for pan India. Each Nodal centre coordinator is provided with 25 seats in every course. Target participants for these courses are Undergraduate, Postgraduate Students and technical/scientific staff of central/state Government/faculty/researchers at university/institutes. These programs aim to create awareness and technological innovations among target stakeholders.

In long term course of 15 weeks on Basics of Remote sensing, Geographic Information System and Global Navigation Satellite System offered during August 16 to November 26, 2021 Government Polytechnic Jalgaon has full 25 registrations form all over Maharashtra. This 15 week course is divided into 5 modules of short term, and each module can also have separate registration. Out of 5 modules 3 modules are completed ,4th module is going on and registrations are open for 5th module. These programs aim to

This activity is conducted under abled coordinator Smt. Sarita P. Jain, Sr. Lecture in Electronics. Mr. Kishor P. Akole Head of Electronics and Telecommunication department motivated Smt. S.P Jain to become nodal Centre coordinator and Dr. Mr. Parag M. Patil Principal, Government Polytechnic Jalgaon provided all support and guidance to become nodal centre.